

Association Médicale Haïtienne À L'Étranger
Haitian Medical Association Abroad

A.M.H.E. Mission Statement.

Above all else, the A.M.H.E. is committed to serve the interests of its members, and to address the medical needs and concerns of the Haitian community abroad and in Haiti.

In recognition of this commitment, the A.M.H.E. will strive to provide the members with professional information to benefit their practice, and to improve the health and welfare of their communities, the Haitian Community in particular.

ARTICLE I

NAME: The Association should be identified as follows: Haitian Medical Association Abroad - Incorporated (A.M.H.E, Inc.) or Association Médicale Haïtienne à L'Étranger., Inc.

ARTICLE II:

OBJECTIVES OF THE ASSOCIATION:

- 1) Promote medical science among Health care professionals of Haitian origin or others interested in Haitian health issues.
- 2) Defend the interests of physicians, dentists and other allied health professionals abroad in their respective communities.
- 3) Offer its members the opportunity to participate in social, educational and cultural activities.
- 4) Strengthen bonds between Haitian physicians, dentists and other Allied Health Professionals residing outside of Haiti and to assist them in the organization of their professional life.
- 5) Encourage its members to maintain contacts with the schools of medicine, the schools of dentistry, other medical associations and the entire medical community in Haiti and abroad for the purpose of assisting them.

ARTICLE III:

The official addresses of the A.M.H.E. are:

- 1) 1166 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, New York, 11213
- 2) www.AHME.org

ARTICLE IV

GENERAL ORGANIZATION:

Section I: COMPONENTS

The Association is composed of:

- 1) The membership 2) The Regional Chapters
- 3) Board of Trustees 4) The Central Executive Committee
- 5) The General assembly 6) The AMHE Foundation

Section II: FINANCES

The funds of the Association shall consist of:

Regular dues of the members; Proceeds from profitable activities; Grant funding for special or specific projects with or without the Foundation.

Gifts Possible legacies including Endowment funds.

The funds of the Association shall be allocated to:

- Run the expenses of its operations.
- Various projects voted by the General Assembly.
- Facilitate or develop grant-funded projects.
- A reserve fund.

3) The Association shall have a bank account in its name. Withdrawals of funds are signed by the treasurer, the assistant treasurer and in extremis by the president.

4) The treasurer shall manage the finances of the Association and shall present an annual accounting report to the General Assembly.

5) Management of the finances shall be under the control of the Executive Committee and should be reported at the meetings of the Board of Trustees.

6) The Executive Committee shall be collectively responsible for managing the funds of the Association before the Board of Trustees and before the General Assembly.

7) The expenditures of the Association shall be established based on the budget prepared within 60 days after the appointment of the new Executive Committee, voted and approved shortly thereafter by the Finance Committee. At the annual convention, this budget shall be submitted to the Board of Trustees and to the General Assembly.

Section III: GENERALITIES:

No part of the net earnings of the Association shall insure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its trustees, officers or other private persons. However, the Association shall be authorized and empowered to make reasonable reimbursement to said person/s for expenses incurred in furtherance of the purpose set forth in these By laws.

No part of the activities of the Association shall be devoted to participating in any political activities for or against any candidate for public office; nor shall the Association engage in any activities not permitted to be carried out by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 © (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue laws).this shall not exclude contributions to political action committees likely to promote the interests of the association.

The AMHE shall have and continue to have the status of an organization which is exempt from federal tax under Section 501 © (3) of the Internal Revenue Service Code of 1954 and these by-laws shall be construed accordingly and all powers and activities hereunder shall be granted and limited accordingly.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the trustees and officers shall have the power to take such action as necessary to continue to conform to said Internal Revenue Code.

The AMHE shall exert its authority in recruiting experts or consultants to meet the grant, gifts and endowment funds requirements established by the Internal Revenue Service guidelines.

ARTICLE V:

MEMBERSHIP

Section I: NATURE OF MEMBERSHIP

Membership of the A.M.H.E. is a privilege which may be extended only to those who can continuously meet the qualifications, standards and requirements set forth in these By-laws. Membership is duly recognized by an Identification card which is the property of the A.M.H.E.

Section II: The Association includes 4 categories of members:

Regular Member: Any physician (M.D. or D.O.), dentist of Haitian origin and holder of a practical medical diploma from an accredited university can be an active member of the A.M.H.E. The member may be currently practicing or may be retired. The status of membership remains in the instances of the chapter becoming inactive.

Associate member: Any graduate physician (M.D. or D.O.), dentist of Haitian origin and not holder of a practical medical license; any physician and licensed Health Care Professional (Chiropractor, Podiatrist, Nurse Practitioner, Physician Assistant, Pharmacist) can be an associate member.

Affiliate member: Any person working in the healthcare field, regardless of the origin, medical and dental students included, desiring to promote the objectives of the AMHE can be an affiliate member.

Honorary member: The qualification of honorary member is conferred by the Board of Trustees upon an individual who has contributed to the advancement of medical science, to the welfare of the Haitian community or to the advancement of the Association in an extraordinary manner.

Section III: PRIVILEGES

Regular members: 1) Shall pay annual dues. 2) Shall attend the meetings of the Association. 3) Have the right to vote. 4) Have the right to be elected officers of the Central Executive Committee. 5) Have the right to be elected as members at large on the Board of Trustees. 6) Have the right to AMHE benefits packages.

Associate Members: 1) Shall pay annual dues. 2) Shall attend the meetings of the Association. 3) Shall have the right to vote and be elected officers of their chapter. 4) Shall not have the right to be elected officers of the Central Executive Committee. 5) Shall not have the right to be elected as members at large on the Board of Trustees. 6) Can participate in different committees of the A.M.H.E. 7) Have the right to AMHE benefits packages.

Affiliate members: 1) Shall not pay annual dues. 2) Shall attend the meetings of the Association. 3) Shall not have the right to vote. 4) Shall not have the right to be elected officer of the Central Executive Committee. 5) Can participate in different sub-committees of the Chapters.

Honorary members: 1) Shall not pay annual dues. 2) Shall attend the meeting of the Association by invitation. 3) Shall not have the right to vote. 4) Shall not have the right to be elected officer of the Central Executive Committee. 5) Can execute specific functions or tasks assigned by the officers of the chapters or of the Central Executive Committee of the A.M.H.E.

Any Physician or dentist may be an active AMHE member without any Chapter affiliation. These members are entitled to all privileges, prerogatives and benefits, as stated in the By laws.

Section IV: APPLICATION

The application form shall be in writing, shall be signed by the applicant and shall be submitted to the Regional Chapters of the A.M.H.E. The applicant who resides outside the jurisdiction of a Regional Chapter should make his application to the secretary of the Central Executive Committee. The application form shall include but is not necessarily limited to the following:

Acknowledgment and Agreement: a) A statement that the applicant has received and read the By-laws of the Chapter, the By-laws of the Association. b) That he or she agrees to be bound by the terms thereof in all matters relating to consideration of his or her application.

Qualifications: Detailed information concerning the applicant including affirmative pledges in satisfaction of the basic qualifications specified in Article V, Section II and any additional qualifications specified herein for the membership status for which he or she is applying. 1) Upon acceptance, the new member shall pay the dues – if any – to the treasurer of the Regional Chapter or to the treasurer of the Executive Committee. 2) The membership is for one year automatically renewable except in case of nonpayment of the dues, resignation, disciplinary sanctions. 3) The membership status shall change any time the requirements for any other status are met.

Section V: DUES

The amount of the dues shall be decided by the Board of Trustees before the fiscal year and shall be communicated to all chapters, after approval by the General Assembly.

The annual dues are collected by the treasurer of the Executive Committee or the treasurer of the Regional Chapter, when practical and applicable. The dues shall be collected during the first three (3) months of the fiscal year. The fiscal year shall extend from January first to December thirty first.

The treasurer of the Executive Committee shall turn over to the Regional Chapter a percentage of the directly collected dues and shall provide a list of the payees to the said Regional Chapter. The percentage shall be decided by the Board of Trustees.

A percentage of the dues collected by the treasurer of the Regional Chapter shall be turned over to the treasurer of the Central Executive Committee and shall provide a list of the payees. The percentage shall be decided by the Board of Trustees, communicated yearly to all chapters and readjusted at the Board discretion.

The privileges of the member except the one to attend the meetings shall be suspended for nonpayment of dues.

Section VI: RESIGNATION

Association Médicale Haïtienne À L'Étranger
Haitian Medical Association Abroad

A

resignation letter shall be sent to the secretary of the chapter or to the secretary of the Central Executive Committee.

Section VII: SANCTIONS

The various disciplinary sanctions shall include: Reprimand; Suspension with loss of privileges; Expulsion.

Whenever the activities or professional conduct of any member are reasonably probable of being detrimental to the Association, an evaluation of the activities or professional conduct may be requested by a Regional Chapter, by the Board of Trustees.

All requests shall be in writing submitted to the Governance and Ethics Committee and supported by reference to the specific activities or conduct that constitute the grounds for the request. The chairperson of the Governance and Ethics Committee shall promptly notify the member in writing of all requests received by the committee.

When a request for Evaluation or Corrective Action of a member is received, the Governance and Ethics Committee shall promptly meet and discuss the matter. Prior to making any recommendation to the Board of Trustees, the member who is being evaluated shall have an opportunity to meet with the Governance and Ethics Committee. A record of the interview shall be made and shall be included in the report to the Board of Trustees.

The Governance and Ethics Committee shall issue a written report and recommendations to the Board of Trustees within thirty (30) days. Such recommendations may include, a Reprimand, Suspension with loss of privileges, and/or Revocation of membership.

The recommendations should be communicated to the member being evaluated, and he or she should also be notified thirty (30) days prior to the deliberations of the Board of Trustees. The member who is being evaluated shall have an opportunity to meet with the Board of Trustees.

To validate a decision of disciplinary sanction, a majority of two-thirds (2/3) by the Board of Trustees shall be required.

No later than thirty (30) days following the deliberations of the Board of Trustees, the member who is being evaluated shall be informed of the action of the Board of Trustees. Such action may include: • Rejecting the request for corrective action • Reprimand • Suspension with loss of privileges • Revocation of membership.

The time periods specified in the By-laws are intended to provide guidelines for the routine process. Deviation from the time period set forth herein shall not be grounds for invalidating action taken.

ARTICLE VI:

Section I: POWERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of trustees is the policy making, decision making body, and the organism of review and control of the A.M.H.E INC.

Subject to the provisions of the Non-profit Corporation, State law and any limitations in the Articles of Incorporation and By-laws related to action required or permitted to be taken or approved by the members of this corporation, the activities and affairs of the A.M.H.E. shall be conducted and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Trustees.

The power to enforce the Articles of Incorporation and the By-laws of the Corporation shall rest with the Board of Trustees.

Section II: GENERALITIES AND DUTIES

GENERALITIES:

The Board of Trustees has the legal responsibility for the management of the funds and operations of the AMHE. It shall receive the reports from the Executive Committee as specified in the By-Laws.

The Board of Trustees has, as specific powers, the approval of the by-laws and constitutions of all subsidiary organizations of the Association.

The Board of Trustees has, as specific duty, to ensure that the Association operates in a manner consistent with its tax exempt status.

All programs, projects, initiatives of the Central Executive Committee or other entities of the AMHE shall be submitted to and approved by the Board of trustees, assuring that any partnership or joint venture arrangements with other organizations are conform with written policies, are properly recorded reported to, and reviewed by the Board of trustees and do not result in inurement or impermissible personal benefit.

DUTIES:

It shall be the duties of the trustees to: Perform any/all duties imposed on them collectively or individually by law, by the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation, or by these By-laws. Meet at such times and places as required by these By laws. Register their addresses with the Secretary of the association, and notices of meetings mailed to them at such addresses shall be valid notices thereof. Pay the annual special contribution as Board member. No Members of the

Board

Association Médicale Haïtienne À L'Étranger
Haitian Medical Association Abroad

shall receive any compensation for services, except that he/she may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with his or her service as a Board member.

Section III: COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of AMHE shall consist of:

Eight Members at large elected by the General Assembly (See Section V) with voting power. The President and the General Secretary of the Central Executive Committee with voting power. The president of an active chapter with voting power. The president or the chairman of the Board of Directors of the AMHE Foundation with voting power. The president-elect with no voting power. The immediate past president of the Board of Trustees with no voting power. The immediate past president of the CEC with no voting power. The treasurer with no voting power.

Section IV: QUALIFICATIONS OF THE MEMBERS AT LARGE

To be elected as member at large, the candidate shall be an active member for five (5) consecutive years, and he or she shall have attended at least one annual convention of the A.M.H.E. during those past three (3) years. Proof of eligibility shall be presented to the Governance and Ethics committee at least six (6) weeks before the date of the election. Each active chapter shall present (2) two candidates to the Governance and Ethics committee. Independent candidates shall make their request to the Governance and ethics committee. The Governance and Ethics Committee shall select and publish the names of the candidates (2) two weeks before the date of the election.

Section V: ELECTION OF THE MEMBERS AT LARGE

The Election of the members at large takes place during the General Assembly at the annual Convention. The newly elected members at large and the other members composing the Board of trustees shall enter in office immediately at the end of the annual convention and shall assume the duties that have been assigned to them until the election of their successors.

Section VI: TERM OF OFFICE OF THE TRUSTEES

Members at large shall serve for a term of three (3) years and shall be eligible to serve a maximum of two (2) consecutive terms.

A Member at large who has served for two (2) full consecutive terms must be off the Board for at least one year before serving again. However, such Member at large who has served for two (2) consecutive terms may serve in another capacity on the Board of Trustees.

The officers of the Central Executive Committee shall serve on the Board of Trustees contemporaneously with their term as officers of that committee (Article VI, section II)

Section VII: OFFICERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The officers of the Board of Trustees shall be a Chair, a Vice-Chair, and a Secretary.

Association Médicale Haïtienne À L'Étranger
Haitian Medical Association Abroad

All officers shall be elected by the Board from its own membership at its next regular meeting following the annual convention of the AMHE and shall serve for a period of three years, or until successors are duly elected. The Chair, the Vice-Chair, and the Secretary can serve a maximum of two consecutive terms only.

The Chair shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Trustees and shall be an ex-officio member of all committees of the Board of Trustees. During his or her tenure, the Chair shall not hold any other position on any committee of the AMHE.

The Vice-Chair shall act as Chair in the absence of the Chair and in so acting, shall have the power and the authority of the Chair. During his or her tenure, the Vice-Chair shall not hold any other position on any committee of the AMHE.

The Secretary shall be responsible for the preparation, mailing and delivery of all appropriate notices, shall act as custodian of all records and reports of the Board of Trustees, and shall be responsible for keeping adequate minutes and other records of all meetings of the Board of Trustees. During his or her tenure, the Secretary shall not hold any other position on any committee of the AMHE.

The immediate Past Chair of the Board of Trustees if not elected Director at large shall be an adviser of the Board of Trustees with no voting rights.

Section VIII: MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Meetings shall be held at such places which have been designated by resolution of the Board of Trustees.

Regular Meetings:

Regular meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held every other month, and/or may be more frequent depending upon the corporation's needs. The Trustees shall decide on a meeting schedule.

At its regular meetings, the Board of Trustees shall receive reports from the Executive Committee. The meeting shall cover activities of the Executive Committee, activities of the different Regional Chapters, activities of the treasury, and a report of the AMHE Foundation.

Any resolution submitted by the Board of Trustees during that meeting should be enforced by the Executive Committee.

Annual Meetings:

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be held during the Annual Convention of the AMHE at such time and place directed by the Chair of the Board of Trustees.

At its annual meeting, the Board of Trustees shall receive reports from the Central Executive Committee.

The reports shall cover activities of the Executive Committee, and activities of the different Regional Chapters. The Treasurer of the CEC shall present a financial Status of the Association. The President of the AMHE Foundation will present a report of the philanthropic and financial activities of the Foundation.

Special Meetings:

Special meetings of the Board of Trustees may be called by the Chairperson, or at the written request of at least one third (1/3) of the Trustees. At least seven (7) days written notice of every special meeting, setting forth the business, for which the special meeting has been called, shall be given to each member of the Board.

Emergency Meetings:

In the event of an emergency requiring immediate official action, the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees may call a meeting of the Board of Trustees by verbal notice or e-mail to address said emergency. Such notice shall state the date, time and place of the meeting and the circumstances of the emergency.

Association Médicale Haïtienne À L'Étranger
Haitian Medical Association Abroad

EXECUTIVE SESSION OF THE BOARD

All executive sessions of the Board of Trustees shall be closed to anyone who is not a member of the Board of Trustees.

An executive session may be held during a regular, special or emergency meeting but no official action shall be taken in such executive session. An executive session may be held only upon a majority affirmative vote of the members present of the Board of Trustees.

ATTENDANCE AND QUORUM FOR MEETINGS

Attendance at all meetings of the Board by its members is mandatory. Any absence by a member who has received proper notice of said meeting must be excused by the Chair. Trustees may participate in a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board by means of a conference telephone or similar electronic communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other.

At all meetings of the Board of Trustees, a simple majority of 50% plus one of the voting memberships, there of shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. No business shall be considered by the Board of Trustees at any meeting at which a quorum is not present.

MAJORITY ACTION AS BOARD MEMBER:

Every action or decision done or made by a majority of the voting members present at the meeting, duly held at which a quorum is present, is the act of the Board of trustees, unless the Articles of Incorporation or By-laws of this corporation, or provisions of the Non-profit Benefit Corporation State Law require a greater percentage or different voting rules for approval of a matter by the Board of Trustees.

CONDUCT OF MEETINGS:

Meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be presided over by the Chair or, in his or her absence, by the Vice-Chair. Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, shall be used in the conduct of the meetings.

Minutes of the meetings of the Board of Trustees and any of its committees shall be duly recorded, approved by the Board, and maintained. Except for executive sessions as provided for in Section VII- 5, of this Article, the minutes of all meetings shall be available to the membership.

All meetings of the Board of Trustees of the AMHE shall be open to the membership of the Association. However, only the Trustees shall participate to the deliberations except as expressly and specifically otherwise provided by the Bylaws.

A person who desires to address the Board of Trustees will not be denied presentation to the Board provided, that he or she has registered with the Chairperson or Secretary of the Board to address the Board more than fifteen (15) minutes prior to the time the scheduled meeting is to start.

Section IX: REMOVAL:

Any Trustee shall be removed from the office for loss of his membership status, improper or unethical conduct or failure to execute the duties of his or her office.

Association Médicale Haïtienne À L'Étranger
Haitian Medical Association Abroad

Any Trustee may be removed at any special meeting of the Board of Trustees according to the procedures (Article V, section VII) and upon an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the voting members of the Board of Trustees at such meeting.

Section X: RESIGNATION:

Any trustee may resign effective upon giving written notice to the Chair, or to the Secretary. The resignation is effective immediately.

The resignation of the President or the Secretary of the Central Executive Committee as such shall terminate his/her tenure as a Board member. The termination is effective immediately.

Section XI: VACANCIES:

Vacancies on the Board of Trustees shall exist: On the death, resignation or removal of any Trustee. Whenever the number of authorized Trustees is increased. Vacancies on the Board may be filled as follows: A President of a chapter by his replacement. A Member at large from the General Assembly by majority of the board of Trustees if independently elected, or by the chapter by which he was designated. The President of the Central Executive Committee by his or her replacement. The secretary of the central Executive committee by his or her replacement. The President or the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the AMHE Foundation by his or her replacement. The newly elected member or officer shall serve out the remaining term.

Section XII: NON-LIABILITY OF TRUSTEES:

The Trustees shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the corporation. Liability insurance shall cover all the members of the Board of Trustees.

Section XIII: CONFLICT OF INTERESTS:

Any Conflict of interests shall be reviewed by the Governance and ethics committee and presented immediately to the Board of Trustees for appropriate correction.

ARTICLE VII:

CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

Section I:

ADMINISTRATIVE BODY:

The Central Executive Committee of the A.M.H.E. hereafter designated as the Executive Committee shall take care of the daily activities of the Association.

The Central Executive Committee shall assure the general functioning of the Association and shall execute the decisions approved by the Board of Trustees and the General Assembly.

Section II: Office of the Executive Committee:

The Central Executive Committee is composed of seven voting (7) members and is assisted by an executive Director. It consists of:

President

The Vice-President

General Secretary

Assistant-Secretary

Treasurer

Assistant-Treasurer

Immediate Past President

President-Elect.

The President and the Secretary of the Central Executive Committee shall be also members of the Board of Trustees. As such, they shall have the powers and authority of the trustees only in the fulfillment of the duties of the Board of Trustees.

Section III: QUALIFICATIONS:

To be eligible for the offices of the Central Executive Committee, it is necessary to: Have been an active member of the Association for a minimum period of (3) consecutive years. Be in good standing at the time of candidacy and at the time of election. Have participated in a minimum of (1) annual convention of the A.M.H.E. during the (3) year preceding the submission of candidacy.

The candidates for presidency, Vice-president Positions of the Central Executive Committee and of president-elect, shall have previously occupied an elective office at the level of the Central Executive Committee or of the Executive Committee of a Regional Chapter.

Section IV: ELECTIONS:

The elections of the officers of the Central Executive Committee shall take place during the annual convention.

The elections shall be conducted by the Governance and Ethics Committee.

Candidacies for offices of the Central Executive Committee shall be submitted in writing to the Governance and

Et
hic
S

Committee forty-five (45) days before the elections and should be validated by the later.

The list of the candidates for the Central Executive Committee shall be published fifteen (15) days before the annual convention. In the exceptional case of absence of candidates for an office, the Governance and Ethics Committee and the Board of Trustees shall decide on the matter.

No candidate may belong to the Governance and Ethics Committee.

The officers of the Central Executive Committee shall be elected by secret ballot. A simple majority of the votes cast shall be necessary to elect. Each voting member shall be authorized to vote only once.

An absent voting member can vote by proxy. This proxy shall be signed by the absent member and by the member holding it. A member can be the holder of only one proxy.

The newly elected officers shall enter in office immediately at the end of the Annual Convention. They shall assume the duties assigned to them in accordance with their function.

Section V:

TERM OF THE OFFICERS OF THE CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The officers of the Central Executive Committee shall serve a two-year term.

The officers of the Central Executive Committee may succeed themselves except the President and the President-elect.

Section VI: DUTIES:

The members of the Central Executive Committee shall have the duty and the power according to the By-laws to conduct business and to pursue the general goals of the Association.

The President shall direct the functions of the Executive Committee. He/ She shall call all regular meetings. He/ She shall present a report both at the regular meetings of the board and at its annual meeting at the convention. He/ She shall prepare the agenda of the General Assembly. He/ She is an ex-officio member of all the committees, permanent or special. In case of emergency, he/she shall execute all decisions in accord with the Executive Committee and the Board of Trustees

The President-Elect shall be an observer to the President. He shall be informed of all actions taken by the President.

The Vice-President shall assist the president in discharging his duties and shall replace him in the event of absence or incapacitation. He/ She shall participate in all actions taken by the president. He/ She is in charge of the By-laws Committee and of the Annual Convention. He shall be informed of all activities pertaining to the convention and shall be in charge of the Scientific Committee of the Convention. He shall be responsible for the Medical Education and Professional and Scientific Affairs Committee. The General Secretary shall be responsible for the archives and seals, shall draw up the minutes, shall provide correspondence, and shall sign legal documents with the president. He/ She shall maintain an updated roll of the membership. He/ She oversees the Information and Public Relations Committee.

The Assistant-Secretary shall assist the Secretary. He/ She replaces the secretary in the event of absence or incapacitation. He/ She shall be in charge of the website. He/ She shall organize the minutes.

Association Médicale Haïtienne À L'Étranger
Haitian Medical Association Abroad

He/ She shall be an ex-officio member of the Editorial Board of the AMHE Newsletter and be informed upon request of all publications of the association. He /She shall oversee the Policies and Procedures book of the AMHE that shall be annually reviewed by the Executive Committee and by the Board of Trustees.

The Treasurer shall manage the funds of the association, shall sign the financial documents. In his/her absence, the President with the Assistant Treasurer shall do so. He shall present an annual financial report at the annual convention. He/ She oversees the Finance Committee. He/ She is duly responsible for filing taxes, requesting audit, and for keeping the incorporation financial status in good standing.

The Assistant-Treasurer shall assist the Treasurer in managing the funds of the AMHE and all documents pertaining to finances. He shall be responsible for signing checks if the Treasurer is absent or becomes incapacitated.

The Executive Director is hired by the Board of Trustees and is a paid employee of the Association. The Executive Director reports to the president of the Association.

Section VII: ATTRIBUTIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR:

The Executive Director provides Executive level support to the Central Executive Committee, the Board of Trustees, the Chapters, and the Committees through the CEC. He/she carries out the Goals and Policies of the Association. He/she performs the day-to-day responsibilities of the AMHE. He/she shall attend the meetings of the Board, report on the progress of the Association, and answer all relevant questions. He/she directs the organization of the Annual Convention in collaboration with the President, the Vice-president, and the Convention Committees. He/she supervises the execution and implementation of the Association Strategic Plan. He/she manages and coordinates the organization's correspondences, with the President and the Secretary of the CEC. The Board can designate and assign other duties as necessary to the Executive Director.

Section VIII: REMOVAL:

Any Officer shall be removed from the office for loss of his membership status; improper or unethical conduct or failure to execute the duties of his or her office. Any Officer may be removed at any special meeting of the Board of Trustees according to the procedures (Article V, section VII), and upon an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the voting members of the Board of Trustees at such meeting.

Section IX: RESIGNATION:

Any Officer of the Central Executive Committee may resign upon giving written notice to the Chair of the Board of Trustees or to the President of the Executive Committee.

Section X: VACANCIES:

Vacancies on the Central Executive Committee shall exist:

On the death, resignation or removal of any Officer/s, Whenever the number of authorized Officers is increased.

Any vacancy in an office of the Central Executive Committee during its term shall be filled by the Executive Committee within thirty (30) days.

The choice of the new officer shall be made at the next meeting of the Central Executive Committee or at a special meeting convened for this purpose.

Association Médicale Haïtienne À L'Étranger
Haitian Medical Association Abroad

The Governance and Ethics committee shall review the qualifications of any expected new officer. The new officer shall serve out the remaining term.

In case of resignation, illness, death or disqualification of the president of the Central Executive Committee, the vice president in office shall replace or succeed him immediately.

In the event of resignation "as a whole" of the Central Executive Committee, the Board of Trustees shall convene immediately for the selection of a provisional committee until the next annual convention.

In case of resignation, illness, death or disqualification of the president-elect of the Central Executive Committee, the vice-president in office shall replace or succeed him immediately.

Section XI: GENERALITIES:

The Central Executive Committee shall be responsible for all publications of the AMHE, INC.

The Central Executive Committee shall be responsible for all directives and information from the secretary's office. The Central Executive Committee shall receive monthly reports from the different Regional Chapters. The Central Executive Committee shall retain the professional services of a competent staff to assist in its task.

In case of emergency, the President, in concert with the chairman of the Board and with other members of the Central Executive Committee, can create a special committee charged with working on and making a report to the Executive Committee on one or several specific problems.

Regular meetings of the Central Executive Committee shall be held once a month.

The quorum required for the meetings of the Central Executive Committee is four (4) members.

ARTICLE VIII:

REGIONAL CHAPTERS:

The Regional Chapter shall be the basic entity of the Association. It shall prepare and adopt such rules, regulations or by laws to be in accordance with those of the A.M.H.E. and to be approved by the Board of Trustees. Its internal organization shall be left to the discretion of its members.

The Regional Chapter shall consist of a minimum of ten members joined together within a geographic unit (nation, state, province, city) and led by officials chosen by an electoral process. The appellation by geographic unit is regulated by the Board of Trustees.

The Regional Chapter shall be led by an elected committee composed of a president assisted by other members. The Regional Chapter of the A.M.H.E. shall be considered active when this chapter holds at least four meetings as requested by the by-laws. Copies of meeting Agenda and minutes shall be submitted to the CEC as proofs of said activities.

Association Médicale Haïtienne À L'Étranger
Haitian Medical Association Abroad

Each active Regional Chapter shall select two (2) members at large to be elected to the Board of Trustees (ARTICLE VIII, section IV).

The Regional Chapter shall follow the professional rules and regulations of the Country where it is established.

A percentage of the proceeds arising from annual members' dues shall be distributed to the treasurer of the Executive Committee at least fifteen (15) days before the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees. This percentage is decided by the Board of Trustees (ARTICLE V, Section V).

The Regional Chapter shall receive from the treasurer of the Executive Committee a percentage of the annual members' dues collected directly at least fifteen (15) days before annual the meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Reports of the activities of the Regional Chapters shall be prepared and submitted at least quarterly to the Central Executive Committee, at the General Assembly and as requested by the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE IX: COMMITTEES:

Section I: COMMITTEES:

To coordinate its activities, the A.M.H.E. shall establish committees which can be permanent or special.

The members of these committees are nominated by the Central Executive Committee and in consultation with the Regional Chapters and the Board of Trustees.

The President of a permanent committee shall be an officer of the Executive Committee except for the Governance and Ethics Committee whose president shall be chosen by and among the members of this same committee. Any Active member, Associate member or Honorary member of the Association can serve on a permanent or special committee.

A committee member may be removed by a majority vote of the members of said committee. Any member with four unexcused or unjustified absences is considered dismissed from said committee and loses automatically his/her privileges as a member of such committee.

Unless otherwise specifically provided, vacancies on any committee shall be filled in the same manner the original appointment to such committees had been made. A vacancy exists when a committee member can no longer perform his or her duties, for whatever reason.

A committee shall be composed of members proportional to its needs but no less than three (3). Section II: PERMANENT COMMITTEES:

The permanent committees are set up by the Board of Trustees. These are:

The By-laws Committee The Governance and Ethics Committee

The Finance Committee

The Medical Education, Professional and Scientific Affairs Committee

The Relations with Haiti Committee

The Convention Committee

The membership committee

The Information and Public Relations Committee

BY-LAWS COMMITTEE:

This committee, chaired by the Vice-President, shall be responsible for the revision, elaboration and the formulation of the By-laws of the AMHE, Inc.

The members of the committee shall be in no case personally liable for recommendations made in good faith in the exercise of their duties.

It shall receive petitions to amend and modify the By-laws of the Association and shall propose its recommendations to the Central Executive Committee and to the Board of trustees. The Central Executive committee shall further convey these recommendations to the chapters for suggestions and recommendations. before they are returned to the Board of trustees and the central executive committee for presentation to the General Assembly.

GOVERNANCE AND ETHICS COMMITTEE:

The Governance and Ethics committee shall be the guardian of the laws and desiderata of the AMHE, Inc.

This committee shall evaluate the qualifications of the members of the Association and shall determine the validity of candidacies for positions on the Central Executive Committee. It shall also confirm the nomination of the members of the Board of Trustees.

It shall be responsible for the electoral process of the Central Executive Committee, of the Board of Trustees and shall proceed to the installation of the officers or members at large immediately after their election.

Its role shall be to investigate any act derogatory to the code of ethics or casting aspersion on the prestige of the Association (Article V, Section VII)

The Governance and Ethics Committee shall be directed by a president chosen and among the members of this committee.

To be a member of the Governance and Ethics Committee, the member shall be an active member for a period of ten (10) years without interruption and he shall have attended at least one (1) convention in the three years preceding his or her election.

The names shall be submitted to the General Assembly by the Board of Trustees.

FINANCE COMMITTEE:

The Finance Committee shall be chaired by the Treasurer of the Executive Committee. It shall study and shall propose projects likely to increase the resources of the Association. It shall manage the gifts, legacies, and the Endowment fund in accordance with the rules and regulations governing the Association in such matters.

INFORMATION AND PUBLIC RELATION COMMITTEE:

The Information and Public Relations Committee shall be chaired by the General Secretary. It shall ensure contacts with the public at all levels – professional and nonprofessional. It shall be responsible for the publication of the Newsletter, at least twice a year.

MEDICAL EDUCATION, PROFESSIONAL AND SCIENTIFIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE:

This committee shall be presided by the Vice-President. It sets up the program of educational and cultural activities of the Association with the cooperation of the Regional Chapters. It shall be responsible for planning scientific programs and scientific presentations during the annual convention. It shall facilitate, encourage and coordinate scientific work and communications under the patronage of the Association. It shall be an ex-officio member of all the publications and editing papers of the AMHE, Inc.

Convention Committee:

The Convention Committee, chaired by the Vice-President, shall consist of the:

Chair of the Education and Scientific Affairs of the C.E.C.

Treasurer of the CEC.

Chairperson of the convention or Chapter Delegate

Three active members who have participated in the organization of previous conventions.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE:

The Membership Committee is the Recruiting Committee of the A.M.H.E. It is chaired by the President of the Central Executive Committee. The members of this committee shall be the presidents of the different chapters. Its role shall be to:

Coordinate the search for new members.

Gather and transmit their concerns and/or their recommendations.

Provide the framework for new Regional Chapters.

Publish a directory of all members of the Association.

RELATIONS WITH HAITI COMMITTEE:

The Relations with Haiti Committee shall be under the direct supervision of the President of the Executive Committee.

Its members should be either past or current officers of the Central Executive Committee, past or current member of local chapters or honorary members designated by the president. This committee shall maintain permanent contacts with Haiti, specially at medical level. The committee shall overview the activities of two subcommittees:

Medical Relief Mission of the A.M.H.E. with a chair nominated by the supervising body.

Visiting Professors Mission to conduct businesses at the Faculty of Medicine or at University level.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES:

Special committees shall be appointed for such special tasks as circumstances warrant. A special committee shall limit its activities to the accomplishment of the task for which it was appointed and shall have no power to act except as it is specifically conferred by action of the Board of Trustees. Upon completion of the task for which appointed, such a special committee shall stand discharged.

The committee shall consist of no less than three (3) nor more than five (5) members designated by the Board of Trustees. The Chair of the Board shall designate the chairperson of each committee. Minutes of all committee meetings shall be duly recorded and maintained.

ARTICLE X: ADVISORY BOARD:

The Advisory Board is solely advisory.

The members of the Advisory Board are chosen by the Board of Trustees.

The Advisory Board is composed of 10 to 15 members with active membership in the Association and other individuals of any nationality who have shown interest in the activities of the Association or able bring expertise. This Advisory board may include medical students/ residents/fellows, lawyers, bankers, accountants, marketing experts and others. The members of the Advisory Board shall serve three (3) years. Term renewable based on productive participation. The Advisory Board shall join a Board meeting twice a year for information exchange relevant to AMHE activities. Additional meeting may be scheduled if necessary. Advisory Board membership may be lost for lack of participation over a year period. However, the member has the right to appeal to the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE XI: AMHE FOUNDATION:

The AMHE Foundation shall be a Not-for-Profit organization created by members of the AMHE, Inc. (Haitian Medical Association Abroad) to carry out its philanthropic missions such as promoting health, education, and welfare in the Haitian Communities.

Section I:

The AMHE Foundation functions according to the laws and regulations of the states or provinces where it is registered. It shall be managed by an independent Board of Directors and operated according to the By-laws of the AMHE Foundation.

Section II:

The AMHE, Inc. Shall be represented on the Board of Directors of the AMHE Foundation as follow:

- 1) Three (3) Members of the Board of Trustees of the AMHE, Inc. namely the President of the Board of Trustees or his/her Representative, the President of the Central Executive Committee or his/her Representative, and the President Elect.
- 2) The President or Representative of each active Chapter.
- 3) Three (3) other active members elected by the General Assembly during the Annual convention.

Section III:

Term Of the Members representing the BOT on the Board of the AMHE Foundation.

Their function shall run concurrently with their term as officers of the AMHE, Inc.

The three (3) other members are elected on a yearly basis. They can be re-elected indefinitely.

Section IV:

An annual report of the activities of the AMHE Foundation shall be presented at the meeting of the Board of Trustees and to the General Assembly at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XII: ANNUAL CONVENTION:

The A.M.H.E. calls its members together once a year for scientific, academic, social, administrative and cultural objectives. This meeting is designated under the Term of "Annual Convention."

The Board of Trustees shall meet at the Annual Convention. It shall address all important issues and vote on all resolutions to be presented to the General Assembly.

The Central Executive Committee shall submit its reports to the General Assembly. It shall be the organizer of and is ultimately responsible for the annual convention. It shall submit and determine the site, the theme of the convention, its date and duration.

The Central Executive Committee can elect a Regional Chapter to conduct, under its supervision, the activities of the convention. A close contact with the Convention Committee of the Central Executive Committee is required from the designated chapter. Therefore, all contracts shall ultimately be approved by the central Executive Committee.

ARTICLE XIII: THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY:

The meeting of all the Members of the AMHE, Inc. is called The General Assembly. It shall take place once a year during the Annual Convention. The organization of this meeting shall be the responsibility of the Central Executive Committee.

The President or the Secretary of the Central Executive Committee shall preside over the meeting.

The agenda of the meeting shall include:

A report of the realizations of the closing year by The Secretary of the Central Executive Committee. Projection of activities for the coming year by the President of the Central Executive Committee. All the resolutions adopted by the Board of Trustees shall be presented by the Secretary of the Board of Trustee. lastly it should include a treasury annual report:

In due time the election of the officers of the Central Executive Committee, of the members at large, submitted by the Governance and Ethics Committee shall take place during the General Assembly.

Quorum necessary to validate the decision of the General Assembly shall be a majority of twenty (20) voting members in addition to the officers of the Central Executive Committee.

Proxy vote can take place one per active member. An absentee ballot or a direct vote by mail validated by the seal of a public notary or previously notified to the Executive director shall be considered legal. The vote by proxy as well the direct vote of the general Assembly of members shall be secret.

ARTICLE XIV: NOTICES, AMENDMENTS

Section I: NOTICES:

All notices of activities, all directives and dispositions of the Association at the level of the Central Executive Committee shall be the exclusive responsibility of this committee. The notices can be sent directly to the members at their current known address or through the intermediary of the Executive Committee of their Regional Chapter.

Section II: AMENDEMENTS:

The articles of these By-laws can be amended or abolished by the General Assembly. Any active member shall submit his or her written petition to the By-laws Committee. The By-laws Committee shall review the article(s) targeted for amendment or abolition. Any announcement shall be accompanied by a written amendment proposal or a written justification for abolition.

Amendment or abolition proposals properly made should be communicated to the various Chapters for discussion. Recommendations should be presented to the Bylaws Committee no later than three (3) months after.

Amendment or abolition proposal and the recommendations shall be presented to the Central Executive Committee and forwarded to the Bylaws committee.

The Central Executive Committee shall present the amendment or abolition proposal and the recommendations to the Board of Trustees at one of its meetings.

To be adopted, any amendment or abolition proposal shall receive a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the voting members of the Board of Trustees.

The written copy of the decisions of the Board of Trustees shall be presented at the General Assembly (ARTICLE VIII, Section IX, 2). The General Assembly may act in such ways:

Adoption of amendment or abolition proposal; rejection of amendment or abolition proposal with recommendations to the By-laws Committee; rejections of amendment or abolition proposals without recommendations. To be adopted, an y, amendment or abolition proposal shall receive a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the voting members of the General Assembly.

Section III: EFFECTS OF ADOPTION OF BYLAWS:

Upon adoption of those By-laws by the General Assembly, they shall immediately become effective following the vote of the General Assembly. They shall fully supersede and replace all preceding constitutions, resolution Bylaws or other Governing Documents, which may have been previously adopted by said General Assembly.

ARTICLE: XV DISSOLUTION:

In case of dissolution of the Association, the Board of Trustees shall be the responsible body. After payments of all debts and liabilities, the board of trustees shall dispose of all assets of the AMHE in such manner or to such organizations operated exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific progress.

BYLAWS COMMITTEE:

Pierre Paul Cadet, M.D. CEC President

Rony Jean-Mary, M.D.

Fritz. Apollon, M.D.

Fabien Wesner Fleurant,

M.D Egel Francois, M.D.

Maxime Coles, M.D.

Douge Barthelemy, M.D.

Christian Lauriston, M.D.

Karl Latortue, M.D.

CONTRIBUTIONS:

Yves Manigat, M.D.

Harold Laroche, M.D.

Michaele D. Bruno, Executive Director

BYLAWS COMMITTEE CHAIR:

Rony Jean-Mary, M.D.

July 2021